THE BH YEARBOOK STAFF

EDITOR'S MESSAGE

It is hard to believe that another school year at BH has passed. It has been a busy, but exciting year for all of us and has left us with many wonderful memories. I hope that this yearbook has successfully captured all those memories for everyone at BH, and especially for the grads of '95. Myself and the entire yearbook staff have worked extremely hard all year to make this book possible. It has been a challenging and rewarding job that has made my final year at BH a memorable and fulfilling experience.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who has participated in putting together this yearbook. I am very grateful for all of this support and hard work. A special thanks to my 3 advisors, Mrs. French (for keeping me on track and organized), Mme Gamache (for helping me through those huge deadlines!), and Mrs. Kowalec (for keeping me in touch with the numerous Junior School activities). I would also like to thank everyone on my staff, including the Junior School yearbook prefect, Cecily Magne and her committee. Everyone's contribution to this yearbook is greatly appreciated.

I wish the best of luck to all at BH, and especially to the 1995-96 yearbook prefect. I hope that her experience will be as enjoyable as mine has been.

Yours truly. Cheryl Pearson

DIANE BIEBER Head of Balmoral Hall School

This has been an exciting year. The school embarked upon the third phase of the "Enriching Her Tomorrows" Capital Campaign. Throughout the year the Senior School Prefects, led by

Rebecca Lechman Head Girl Fern Cronshaw School Captain Megan Sweatman Sports Captain Tara Stupak Arts Prefect Cheryl Pearson Yearbook Prefect Veronica Schreiber Library Prefect Harwant Sandhu Community Service Prefect Jennifer Hazelwood Residence Prefect Michelle Cowan Ballater House Head Roslyn Forbes Braemar House Head Brandi Donald Craig Gowan House Head Margaret Trott Glen Gairn House Head

inspired the School student body and promoted School spirit. The Senior School Prefects, along with Heather Hrousalas, Head Girl of Middle School, and Kelsey Mills, Head Girl of Junior School, gave a tremendous amount of their time and effort to Balmoral Hall. Thank you from everyone at B.H.

Congratulations to Cheryl Pearson, the 1994/95 Yearbook Editor, who along with her staff and teacher advisors, Natalie French, Nathalie Gamache, Christina Kowalec, and Junior School Rep, Cecily Magne, has produced a wonderful record of B.H.'s history in 1994/95.

To the Grade 12 graduating class, congratulations to all of you who have contributed so much to make this school year a success. Remember your B.H. 'family' in the future and our heartfelt best wishes go out to you in your future endeavours! We know you will be successful.

JUDITH STEEK Head of Junior School

I would like to offer congratulations to the 1994/95 yearbook staff. This yearbook exemplifies the Balmoral Hall education. It has highlighted the many academic achievements, athletic events and, most importantly, the memories of friendship.

Junior School is the foundation of Balmoral Hall. It is the place where academics are stressed, athletics encouraged and friendships flourish. It is the place where dedicated staff and motivated students make Thomas Huxley's words ring true: "With ordinary talent, but extraordinary perseverance, all things are attainable." Congratulations to both the grade six and the grade twelve graduates. You have all worked extremely hard.

THE HEADS

LYNNE AXWORTHY Head of Senior School

Congratulations to Cheryl Pearson, Madame Nathalie Gamache, Madame Natalie French, and the Yearbook staff on the 1995 Balmoral Hall Yearbook.

One of the traditions at B.H. is this lasting record of our achievements, friendships, and classmates, and the many clubs, teams and activities that enrich B.H. life.

This past year, on three occasions, I have invited our graduates and senior students to speak to parents, and prospective students on their years at B.H. All spoke about what makes our school special. "People care"; "the teachers care"; "they always have time for their students" were their responses. The uniqueness of Balmoral Hall is that it fosters this caring, and spirit of collegiality and cooperation.

To the graduates of 1995 - you leave Balmoral Hall with our affection and best wishes. In the words of one of your classmates, "Balmoral Hall graduates are dynamic; they think creatively, they communicate with precision and persuasion; they understand the past and have a firm grasp on the future. Balmoral Hall graduates are the Leaders of Tomorrow".

Good luck to you all in all your endeavors.

ELOISE WILSON Head of Middle School

The heart of the School beats to provide the energy and the spirit that powers the entire School machine. Middle School students are finding their new selves by trying different ideas and developing their independence. Middle School teachers respond appropriately by creating an environment that fosters academic growth and stimulates intellectual curiosity. You will find these characteristics reflected many times in the pages of this fine yearbook.

Eloise Wilson, Head of Middle School

Message from Stephen Coyle Chairman of the Board

On behalf of the Board of Governors, I would like to congratulate the graduating class of 1995.

We are confident that the staff of B.H. have prepared you all for the challenges ahead.

You and your families should be proud of your achievements while at B.H. You will remain part of the B.H. family forever.

We wish you success in all of your future endeavors.

To the parents of the graduating class, well done! Thank you for your support and committment to B.H.

Message from Linda Martin Alumnae Director

The time has come for the class of 1995 to leave the shelter and warmth of Balmoral Hall, and to reach out to the future. Congratulations on your graduation and good luck in your travels through the adventure of life!

One could truly say that this year's graduates have risen to the occasion. As youth you were outspoken, radical idealists who have now become independent, reliable leaders. You have become a close-knit, caring group who are role models for the School. You are involved, proud, spirited, and energetic. Your ability to care for each other has rippled down through the grades, so that you have crossed the barriers of age. You have developed your own identity, and in doing so have enhanced others.

Now it is time to take the lessons you have learned in leadership, teamwork, and academia; to use to better the world. Go forth, enjoy, and conquer.

Remember your roots, and return to your Alumnae. Use us to keep in touch. We will remember you and be watching with interest.

Linda Martin.

THE PARENT ASSOCIATION

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

The Parent Association would like to extend its best wishes to the 1995 graduates.

Throughout its existence, the association has had different approaches and objectives but it has always shared a common goal: to enhance school life for its students.

We believe strongly that, as parents, we have an important role to play in the education and development of our children. Both teachers and parents are important in the preparation of the student for the challenges that await her beyond the gates of Balmoral Hall.

As adults we recognize that, for the graduates, life's education is really just beginning and we hope that your life will be filled with its fair share of joy and happiness;

An educated person is not a past participle: education is a life-long process never finished. It is often said that undergraduate training does nothing more than define the limits of one's ignorance. It also shows us that, no matter how a good instructor can help us, we are the only ones who can do the work: we have to teach ourselves.

HEAD GIRL AND SCHOOL CAPTAIN

Fern Cronshaw, Rebecca Lechman

Fern: So how do you want to do this?

Rebecca: I dunno.

Fern: Come on. This has to be good. Everyone's going to read it.

Rebecca: No they're not. Who reads these things?

Fern: Just do it okay ? Rebecca: Okay!

Fern: Okay. So, this has been a great year.....Yup.

Rebecca: Where did the time go?

Fern: Remember that stupid D.J. in the blue suit at the first B.H. dance? Rebecca: Who could forget? Or what about Spirit Week? That was cool.

Fern: No don't put that. That's boring. Rebecca: Do you want to do this all?

Fern: You were the one who wanted to do this together!

Rebecca: So let's do it. We had to do SOMETHING this year, didn't we ?

Fern: Well, let's thank everyone. Thanks to Mrs. Westdal for doing our dirty work over the phone. And thanks to Mrs. A (the other one) for all of her motherly, moral support. (heck, girls, you mean to say heck.)

Rebecca. Well what about the original Mrs. A and all of the B.H. staff? Thanks for putting up with all of our LOOOOONG assemblies.

Fern: And Student Council, your attempts to collect mufti money are strongly appreciated. Thanks to the admin. for your assistance on the photocopiers.

Rebecca: Of course, let's not forget the other prefects, and most important, THE STUDENTS! You're the ones who made this year a success.

Fern: That's good.

Rebecca: Should we end here?

Fern: WAIT! You forgot to give BEST WISHES for next year.

Rebecca: What do you mean I forgot ? YOU forgot.

Fern: No, 1 remembered.

Rebecca: Listen, I'm the one typing this so let's just get it done.

Fern: What's the hurry ? It's already 8 days late.

Rebecca: Well, you didn't have to tell them. They didn't know that.

Fern: Whatever.

BOTH: We love you guys and we wish you the best of luck in the future. We'll miss you.

Fern: That's awesome!

Rebecca: Yup!

My Experience As Head Girl

When people ask me what do you do as Head Girl of Junior School I usually reply, "Well I give the kids birthday stickers and I lead the school prayer at assemblies." But that isn't what being Head Girl is all about. As Head Girl of Junior School I'm supposed to represent Junior School (and do birthday stickers!).

So far my experience as being Head Girl has been challenging, interesting and most importantly, fun. The year has gone great and I really enjoy making decisions about activities with the prefects. I think being Head Girl is great and it's been an interesting experience. Thank you to everyone who helped me (especially the Prefects)!

We would like to thank you for letting us be your prefects for 94-95. We enjoyed working with Mrs.Wilson, Mrs.Westdal, Mrs.Anderson, and all the senior prefects. We really liked the prefect sleep over, where we helped plan the events of the year.

This year we tried to accomplish many things. First, we held regular M.S. Student Council Meetings, and we brought back the M.S. Newsletter. We also tried to improve the M.S. locker room, with monthly locker room clean-ups. M.S. Intramurals, the Swim Meet, track and floor hockey were all organized by Maya for the M.S. students. To end a great year, the grade 9's had a grad and went to Grand Beach. It was so much fun!

Good Luck to next year's prefects, and thanks again for making this a successful year for M.S.

STUDENT LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

Megan Sweatman, Missy Cowan, Ginny Lechman, T'Shura Elias, Jenny Stitz, Sara Crowther, Harwant Sandhu, Roslyn Forbes.

From Sept. 30 to Oct. 2, I attended the 6th annual Manitoba Leadership Conference in Brandon. We left B.H. around 1:30 P.M. on Friday, already off to a late start. We arrived at Polo Park to meet the Jostens bus thinking it was a Grey Hound of some sort. We had obviously been mistaken as the only bus in the parking lot was a beat up school bus. After a few laughs and lots of pictures on the bus, we were on our way. For the next 2 hours we were entertained by Stu and Andy -motivational speakers from Ontario-, a bunch of noisy strangers, the guy from Shaftsbury who hated cheers and of course Bud the bus driver. (We stopped at JK's Grocery Store on the way for a short bathroom and food break). Finally, we arrived at Crocus Plains Secondary High School where the conference was held. The conference began with a dance sponsored by Much Music, a group hug, a warm fuzzy from Corey and hospital bracelets put on by T'Shura. We had the wonderful opportunity of having Stu and Andy speak as well. Saturday was filled with sessions, two of which were held by T'Shura and myself. We spoke about Spirit Week ideas. We also had an opportunity to take a look around the trade show which included booths representing Jostens, Sights and Sounds, and more. Saturday night, the conference ended with an absolutely amazing dance put on by Sights and Sounds. Sunday morning was spent watching group presentations and closing ceremonies. As we boarded the bus we knew that each of us was leaving with something we never came with. Whether it be a new friend, one less B.H. pin, or the ability to be a successful spirited leader. We were all part of something very special. All in all the weekend was a success with many fond memories. I really enjoyed the conference both as a participant and a presenter. I'm very thankful that I had the opportunity to spend quality time with all the girls who attended. I look forward to possibly representing B.H. at another leadership conference in the future.

CITY SLICKERS BBQ

If you weren't at this year's B.B.Q., on September 20th, you missed a barrel of fun. From the live band to the "Dunk Tank", to the petting zoo, it was the greatest! The evening ended with popcorn, laughter and splashes. We are all looking forward to next year's B.B.Q.. Special thanks to the Parents' Association for a job well done.

FAREWELL TO THE PORTERS

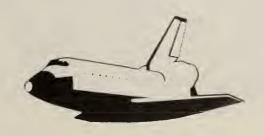

On December 1st, B.H. bid farewell to Mr. Porter and his family at the "Best Friends" Assembly. The Porters were treated to some wonderful BH entertainment and were also presented with farewell gifts to remember the 5 years that they have spent as a part of our BH family.

The Porters will be greatly missed at BH. We wish them all the best as they begin their new life in Germany. Goodbye and Good Luck!

GRADE EIGHT'S GO TO THE RENAISSANCE FESTIVAL

CAMP ARNES

Once again the grade sixes made their way to Camp Arnes on January 18-20. They were accompanied by Mrs. Christie, Mrs. Calsbeck, Miss Johnson, and Mrs. Piercy. Once they got there they were met by Julie, Wendel, and Kirt, the camp leaders.

Their days were full of fun and educational activities such as Nature Study, Animal Study, Snow Study, and Orienteering. Some favorites of them were learning to drive the cutters, the hayride, and going swimming. In their free time they could take a walk and enjoy the fresh air, or just spend time in the cabins.

The chefs at the camp did an excellent job preparing delicious meals for all the hungry girls.

Their time at Camp Arnes came and went by so quickly. If you ask the grade sixes if they had a good time at camp, the look on their faces will be enough to tell you that they had a great time!

Halloween saw some old traditions and new ideas this year. There was the costume parade as it is every year in the Richardson gym. This year there was everything from bright, to funny, to pretty, to scary.

The Parent Association held a hot dog lunch in the creatively decorated lunchroom. They also hosted the junior school activities which included maskmaking, storytelling, pumpkin carving and cupcake decorating. New this year was the grade 6's visit to Misericordia hospital. The students visited and entertained the patients.

The fun and laughter this year was enough to raise the dead! BOO!

W.I.S.M., or Women In Science and Math, is always a big event in Junior School. (Grades 4-6 participate.) This year, there were 10 career presenters. Some of them were a dentist, agriculture writer, a microbiologist, an athlete, an engineer, a culinary educator, an airphoto operations technician, entrepreneur, a therapeutic therapist, and an anesthetist. And...(there's more?) the keynote speaker was Dr. Jane Evans! It was such an exciting night! (You should have seen the snowstorm!) The exciting evening started at 6:10 P.M. and ended at 8:30 P.M. (from 6:10-6:45 P.M. was viewing time of the project fair). It was a GREAT evening!

J.K.'S VISIT AIR CANADA

As a special spring field trip, the Junior Kindergarten class visited Air Canada Maintenance Hangar on Saskatchewan Avenue. Our pilot was First Officer Dan Boyd, father of J.K. student Grace Boyd. Dan took us on a guided tour of the hangar where we saw airplane parts being fixed, painted, and assembled. We even saw an entire DC9 all apart like a giant jigsaw puzzle. The biggest hit with the class was when we walked under an Airbus A30 which we later boarded for a quick tour. Fellow pilot, Jim Chambers talked to us about jet engines and explained to the class how they worked. It was a memorable trip and everyone had a real blast. The next day the children drew wonderful pictures of airplanes which were on display for Grandparents Day.

Message from the Community Service Prefect

The Community Service program at B.H. has been improving consistently and is the best. My position has been a lot of fun as well as challenging. This year, most of the work I did was involved inside the school and not so much as with the outside community. I took part in the Teddy Bear's picnic, the school B-B-Q, Unicef, the Fashion Show, Volunteer Week, and also organizing, assembling and running the Canteen. I would like to thank all the Prefects for always being there to lend a helping hand and for being very supportive. I especially would like to thank Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Westdal, and Ms. Demong for their unfailing advice. The 1994-1995 year was awesome and I will miss B.H. My best wishes to the prefects of '95-'96 and to all the students of Balmoral Hall. Good luck to my fellow graduating class, I love you guys. Thank you for a year I'll never forget.

THE ARTS

ARTS PREFECT

My sincere thanks to all the Prefects (especially Harwant), I'd never have been able to do it without you. I would also like to thank all the administrative staff, teachers (especially Mrs. Westdall) and all those who donated very generously to the art department this year. Last but certainly not least, a special thank you to all the students, for an amazing year! I wish you all the best in the years to come!

ODE TO SPRING BREAK

Ode to Spring Break,
How I love thee,
Time to waste, watch TV.
Eat glorious food and vegetate,
Dance through flowers and meditate.
Hang with thy chums,
On the phone flapping thy tongues.
Receive thy magazine,
A report card and Seventeen.
Mad are thou parents,
How they are so tense!
No Hawaian water or Caribbean beach,
But more than the occasional parental speech.
Blonde and blue eyes,
In my dreams are the guys.
7 more days till school,
I am so sad I can almost drool.
Exams are around the corner,
Lay thee down, I am a mourner.

JUNIOR SCHOOL CHOIRS

SENIOR CHOIR VISITS TORONTO

"ANNE OF GREEN GABLES"

Anne of Green Gables was cast by the grade six classes. It was a lot of work. The classes spent recesses and spare time on the play.

The play was about an orphan named Anne Shirley (played by Amanda Schimnowski) who came to live with a family in Prince Edward Island. Anne was a dreamy romantic who loved to get into trouble with her imagination.

Mrs. Piercy, Mrs. Christie, Mrs. Ilavsky and many volunteers helped make the play a wonderful experience.

GRADE EIGHT CHOIR

Mrs. Sammons.

On February 7th, 1995, Balmoral Hall presented "From Beatles to Broadway" at the Franco-Manitoban Cultural Centre, under the direction of the music and drama teacher, Mrs. Aranovitch. The cast consisted of the grade 7,8 and senior choir ensemble, and the residence dance ensemble. After weeks of long hours of work, all the pieces were put together. The evening began with opening remarks by Mr. and Mrs. Sweatman. Then, on to the show! - a Beatles Meadley, a "Joseph" medley, Jazz dancing, Gershwin music, Fascinating Rhythm, and finally, a performance by the entire cast. The whole show was a great success and ran smoothly due to the support of the stage managers. When the evening was complete, we all left with a song in our hearts!

INTERNATIONALS AND RUPERT'S LAND TOURNAMENT

The Third Annual Rupert's Land Tournament for Debating and Public Speaking was held at Balmoral Hall on November 19th. 1994. The results of this tournament decides who will make up the Manitoba team for the National Public Speaking Championships at SJR. There were 44 competitors from 8 schools. Each competitor entered 2 events: Parlimentary Debating and either Impromptu Speaking or Persuasive Speaking. In the end, BH, as usual, did wonderfully. The team of Rachel Schipper, Raphi Labman, and Aylia Mohammadi placed first and won the Bishop of Rupert's Land Trophy. Despite being incredibly sick and running a fever, Shauna Labman placed 4th in Impromptu and 10th overall. Sunita Seshia placed 3rd in Impromptu and 12th overall. Raphi Labman placed 3rd in Persuasive and 8th overall. Aylia Mohammadi placed 2nd in Persuasive, 6th in Debating and 4th overall. And, Rachel Schipper placed 1st in Persuasive, 7th in debating and 1st overall. The Manitoba Team for the SJR Nationals consisted of Rachel Schipper and ex-BHer Tara Zytariuk. All in all, success at Rupert's Land Tournament has become a BH tradition.

Aylia Mohammadi

The 1994 International Independent Schools' Public Speaking Tournament took place in Victoria, British Columbia from October 19 to the 24th. It was hosted by Glenlyon-Norfolk School. Thirty-four independent schools participated from all over the world. Participants competed in three events choosing from Parliamentary Debating, Cross Examination Debate, Persuasive Speaking, Impromptu Speaking, Extemporaneous Speaking, Radio Newscast, Dramatic Interpretation, and Interpretive Reading. There were teams from Canada, United States, England, Cypres, and Japan. Balmoral Hall sent a team of three students consisting of Raphaelle Labman, Rachel Schipper, and myself, with Mrs. Martin as our coach. The tournament was exhausting but proved to be worthwhile. Rachel made the finals in Parliamentary Debate, I made the finals in Impromptu Speaking, and Raphi did very well for her first ever Public Speaking competition. Our team placed sixth overall and third in Canada.

ARTS AT BH

The brightly colored autumn leaves, fall softly from the trees.

And skitter dancingly along, with every passing breeze.

The wind has a sharp but subtle edge, the air is crisp and clear. And father Winter's icy breath, an ever present fear.

Above a piercing brilliant blue, fills the gleaming sky.
As if the eyes of a guardian angel, were watching from on high.

It's a time of colors, vivid and bright, the fluttering leaves fall down. And as the fall comes to a close, the last leaves touch the ground.

SPORTS CAPTAIN

Being Sports Captain has been a lot of hard work but definitely worth it! Between Ski Day, Swim Meet, the Terry Fox Run, Interhouse and Track Day we have seen our four houses battle for those house points, trying to win the house cup at the end of 1994-95 school year. In the past years the spirit in the sports section of the school has increased greatly, however this year's spirit was outstanding. Being Sports Captain has put me right in the thick of all events. I've seen our school teams and inter-house teams excel far above their opponents and seen the enthusiasm "bubble" right from the core of the student body. This year a large percentage of students participated in all aspects of the phys-ed program and made it all worth while and fun for all.

Thank you to my sports council and all those who participated to their fullest and made this a successful year. And most importantly, thank you to the four house heads, Missy, Brandi, Ros, and Maggie who made it all possible. Best of luck to the Sports Captain of 1995-96!

Sincerely, your Sports Captain,

Megan Sweatman

BALLATER

To my fellow frog lovers,

It is hard to believe the year is almost over but what an amazing year it has been. September started off with a bang when we showed our true "green spirit" at the Terry Fox run. Next up we were in the pool where we conquered the Swim Meet and had an awesome time doing it. Ballater is no doubt the best house around with the most enthusiasm and spirit. We sure come around for interhouse, intramurals and Ski Day.

I want to thank all you Ballaterians for making 1994-1995 a year I will never forget. A special thank you to Meg, Ros, Brain, and Maggie. I wish you all the best next year. Lastly, the year wouldn't have been nearly as successful without the hard work of the Junior School House Head, Abbie Bajon. Good luck to next year's Kermit lovers, enjoy it while it last. With love for the most spirited house around and Kermit the Frog,

Missy Cowan XOXOXO

P.S. "Everywhere we go, people want to know, who we are..."

BRAEMAR

Hey Braemar,

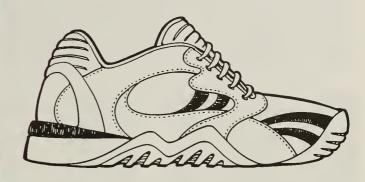

EXTRA, EXTRA, READ ALL ABOUT IT, BRAEMAR'S GONNA WIN NO DOUBT ABOUT IT!!!

Boy, were we right when we screamed that. It's been awesome being the leader of the most spirited house in the school!!

Right from the very beginning to the end, from the Terry Fox Run, to the Swim Meet, to Intramurals, etc..., those birds, frogs, and Winnie the Pooh have been chasing after us Hippos!

It's been a pretty good challenge, but better luck next year guys!! I'd also like to send my greetings to Missy, Brandi, and Megan for being great fellow House Heads. Keep the Hippo Power alive and yourselves spirited for next year,

Luv, Roslyn Forbes

CRAIG GOWAN

To my fellow Big Birds,

Well I must say it's been a great year, you guys have been great through everything. We left all the other houses in the dust during swim meet, ski day and the track meet. You have made me very proud to be your house head. I'd like to thank my fellow house heads, Roslyn, Missy, and Maggie for putting us through some pretty tough competition. I would also like to thank our Junior Scholl House Head Catherine Murray. You did a great job keeping the spirit alive in Junior School! A special Thanks to our Sports Captain Megan Sweatman and our awesome sports council!

1 will miss you all very much, I love you,

Brandi Jay Donald

GLEN GAIRN

To the fabulous followers of Pooh Bear!

RED, RED, RED!

You don't mess with the best! This is the message the OTHER houses have learned this term! Glen Gairnites have shown their groovy nature in every event this year! The Terry Fox Run, Ski Day, 7 and 8 Intramurals and the Track Meet have all improved our already fantastic image. I'd like to extend a thanks to Brandi, Missy, and Roslyn for trying to give us some competition. They can't help it if we are RED HOT! Glen Gairn Rules!

Have a great time next year! I've had a fabulous time being your House Head: Glen Gairn's #1!

MRS. RIEGER DEAN OF RESIDENCE

Living in an increasingly humanistic, hedonistic society, dramatically impacts on the development and growth of the students I have in my care. Living where they learn along with academic and peer pressure, coupled with cultural and ethnic diversity, creates a formidable learning environment.

All the students in their own inimitable fashion, the zest for life and the tenacity of their youth, enables them to accept these challenges and learn to cope on a daily basis. They develop and mature into young women, ready to face the uncertainties of the future. Friendships are cemented like treasures tied in tiny bows.

As I gaze with pride on the graduates of 1995 whom I had in my care, I feel an overwhelming pang of regret at having to bid farewell. I have learned from everyone and I will miss each one. Yet within my heart I know that each has......." The courage of a dreamer, mingled with the innocence of youth; whilst enduring the failures and foolishness, that leads them to the truth!"

Love, "Surrogate Mom", Eileen Rieger.

JENNIFER HAZELWOOD RESIDENCE PREFECT

Leaving residence at the end of the year is always depressing. Not only are we packing up ALL of our belongings, we are leaving what has been our "home away from home" for the past 10 months. We have been forced to enter the life of supervised study and room-mates, and now, after becoming attached to our new family, we are being forced to leave it.

Our sheltered lifestyle consisting mostly of food and the latest news on Marlena's possession in Days of our Lives, was comforting and blissful. Unfortunately, though, we all must move on.

We are hesitant to say goodbye to our bestest friends, some of which we'll probably never see again. However, we have enough good memories, and some pretty incriminating pictures to last us through the ages.

I want to thank everybody who helped to make this year such an exciting one. Mrs. Rieger has always been there for us; she has a very strong shoulder and is always ready for the unexpected. We have been blessed this year with Miss Ramsay -she holds the record for the best-liked and longest running Assistant Dean ever.

I think everybody had fun, amidst the school's attempt to convert us all into studious academic scholars. Most importantly, though, we all managed to keep our insanity!

I'll miss you all and wish everybody the best of luck in whatever journey our lives take us!

Love, Jennifer Hazelwood.

THE GRADS

Mass of nineteen hundred and ninety five

Jennifer Bermisa 1992-1995

Jen came to B.H. in Grade 10 from S.M.A. She seemed really quiet and shy at first but we all soon came to realize that Jen just wasn't that way,

I still remember all the times in Grade 11 when we would go into the parking lot and her jeep would be stolen (even after she got the club).

Well Jen, congratulations (about Vanessa). I wish you both the best of luck!

Love, Moe.

Daisy Chan 1993-1995

Daisy comes from Hong Kong, but we didn't know each other in Hong Kong even though I also come from Hong Kong. We have studied at Balmoral Hall School for two years. The first time I met Daisy, I found that she was very quiet and shy. Even though Daisy is shy, I have gotten to know her quite well and we have now become very good friends.

Sometimes, she talks to me about her future. I know that she really loves Art and would like to study Art at University. I think that she has a strong potential in Art.

Finally, I hope that she has a good next year and will do her best in the future.

Love, Yonnie Chan.

Yonnie Chan 1993-1995

Yonnie came to B.H. two years ago from Hong Kong. There's so much we want to say about her. There are several sides to Yonnie - she seems quiet but actually behind doors, she is very good at making us (me and my roommate) laugh with her exaggerated expressions. She also works very hard on her Art projects. In rez, she spends lots of her time on the phone and is one of the "phone queens" in rez.

I and my roommate want to thank Yonnie for all the wonderful memories and the laughter she has brought to us.

Wish you the best of luck for your future.

Lots of Love.

Daisy Chan.

Aaron Chauvin 1994-1995

Aaron came to Balmoral Hall for her last year of high school. She came all the way from sunny and warm Argentina to frosty Canada. She loves her time in Rez. If you can't find her anywhere at BH, she's probably out at Kelvin High School, where she spends as much time as possible. My first memory of Aaron was of a shy young woman who could miraculously study from her class notes at 10:00 the night before the test and still manage to pass! Aaron participates in the B.H. Curling Team and in the Theatre Arts class. She hates to wear shoes, so the feet of her tights are always shredded. I really enjoyed being with Aaron, and having the chance to talk about everything from her friends in Trinidad to the length of time her dog spent in quarantine. One thing that I will always associate with Aaron is Sherbrook Avenue Whenever I'm driving home during a spare there is Aaron speed walking on her way to Cousin' Restaurant or on her way to Kelvin. It is always a pleasure to be around Aaron with her bubly personality. She always has a smile ready for you after a test.

Jean Chen 1994-1995

What can I say about my "adopted sister" - Jean Chen? This amazing girl arrived at Balmoral Hall School a year ago from Shanghai, China. Don't be fooled by her quiet face. Actually you can always hear her clear voice anywhere in school and Rez. Although she is already a "really" smart girl, she still spends most of her time on her study. No wonder she is always the owner of the highest mark in AP Calculus! Besides being such a wonderful student, she is also the "big sister" and psychological doctor among the Chinese girls in Rez. Though we've only known Jean for a year, we have shared a bunch of good time with her. Hey Jean, do you still remember the birthday party we had together, the Tim Horton's that is filled by our boast and laughter, and all the happiness and sadness that we shared? You'd better not forget to keep them in mind... Jean is going to continue her college life at the University of Manitoba. Wish all your sweet dreams come true. Good luck, sweetheart. I will miss you!

Love, Karen.

Michelle Cowan 1989-1995

Missy came to B.H. in grade seven, a boy-crazy, 10 page, single-spaced, typed note passing, partying lunatic. We were all amazed by her connections ("the Rockets") - - and by her studly ex-boyfriends dating back to grade two. Missy's contributions to the class have been great. She's introduced us to Naya water, Eagle Talons, Jeanne's cake and MAC makeup. Senior school was no change. Missy continued to be a fast paced socialite and could be found hanging out at the Jet's lounge, Fit 'n Firm, Grapes and Scandals or recounting tales of the infamous "Cowboy Dan". On the serious side, Missy has served on the Student Council for all of her years at B.H. and has made an incredible number of contributions: the 30 Hour Famine, Lake Shake, Fashion Show, Grad '92, '94, '95 couldn't have happened without her efforts. She has spread her knowledge of health to the rest of the school by offering aerobics after school. Missy, you've made life so interesting and you've taught us a lot. You've been a best friend and we hope it never ends.

Love always, Shauna, Megan, Bec.

Fern Cronshaw 1991-1995

Fern came to us with attitude. She had big black hair, listened to death metal, and scared us all. This lush is now School Captain (we can't believe it either). However, Fern is doing an incredible job. She's working so hard we think she'll end up in a rubber room. Memories of last summer keep Fern's spirit high. It all began with the May long weekend and some unfriendly women with earplugs that didn't work. Next was grad, where Fern's hair matched her purple dress. Then, there was Silver Lake where Fern frolicked in a mud puddle. Fern endured yet another mud adventure at SunFest. Fern had mud dreads and was attached to two people with neon elastic tape for a day. The insanity of her world keeps her alive. She'll always have attitude, and we'll love her for it (friend conservation forever!)

Brandi Donald 1989-1995

Brain entered the Halls of BH in grade 7 with those bangs that could poke an eye out and we can't forget the blond bouncy curls. Brainy joined choir in Grade 9 and went on the Orient trip but she still doesn't know if she's an alto or a soprano. Everyone got to know Brain really well through her various parties at Mount Royal and through borrowing clothes (all from Le Chateau). We can't forget those nights driving down Main Street picking up a certain guy (I thought he had dreads!!), and those nights at the Monestary. Well, love you. Never forget the beast, Hunters, and D.G. (from the lake). Camping, 2 weekers here us roar!!

Love, Moe (and Missy)

ROSLYN FORBES 1993-1995

Roslyn came bursting into B H. two years ago. Ever since, Ros has been entertaining us with her singing, Mick Jagger impressions, and asking questions like: "Are they wearing bathing suits in the Peeper run?" Ros may be a little nutty, but her kindness, and enthusiasm will be greatly missed. Good luck at university next year! We'll miss you!

Love, Tar.

ILISE GREENBERG 1989-1995

Ilise Greenberg came here in grade 7 from Ramah school. Since then, Ilise has changed a lot. Ilise will be remembered for her seriousness about marks and exams, (which has decreased in recent years). Now however, she has mellowed and we all have seen Ilise's fun side. She is very bubbly, and is NEVER short of things to say. My fondest memory of Ilise is seeing her jump in her car at noon, making a dash to Subway, and racing back to make it in time for class. Next year, Ilise will be attending University of Manitoba, working towards an Arts degree. I wish you luck in the years to come, and I know that whatever you will do, you will be a success!

Love, D.P.

MOIRA GUSTAFSON 1987-1995

Moe corrupted the halls of B.H. in grade 5 as a short little girl with brown curly hair. Now, eight years later, it's hard to believe that she just about left without saying good-bye. Moe is always someone you can laugh with in Bio or party with on ski trips. Moe's become famous for her pictures of Japan's only skaters, her ability to live off the canteen with no money and her wacky "body gestures" that are only seen in times of crisis. For three straight years Moe was my Geography companion and almost convinced me to go to L.A. She even made a top ten list. Moe, you will always be short and cute, but after that Mexico "tree and bottle" thing, I look at you in a whole different light. I love you to death and want you to know that you really have filled these past four years with endless laughter and great times. I hope that in ten years you will be able to look on a map and point to Winnipeg when you think of a friend. With love for strawberry margaritas and a wonderful friendship, Missy. Keep in touch!

JENNIFER HAZELWOOD 1990-1995

Jenn came to B.H. four years ago. She had dreams of converting everyone into having big hair and Mariposa. Although her small town dreams were crushed by city realities, she's turned out pretty O.K. Jenn now has a new dream -to conquer U. of M. Rez.- and even let them know some of her secrets to throwing school dances! But seriously, Jenn is a great person and friend, and definitely the BEST rez prefect this school has ever seen! Jenn, I wish you the best of luck and "thanks" for everything. Love, Kat. XO P.S. It's HELEN not HELEN'S!

TARA-LEA HERKERT 1994-1995

Tara-Lea Herkert came to B.H. for grade 12 and has quickly found a place in everyone's heart. Finding her textbooks and papers sprawled from one end of the locker room to the other has become her trademark. It's amazing she finds her notes for tests. But she does (usually doing great!). Tara-Lea is the ideal of school spirit! She gives everything she's got to whatever she does, be it at lunch-time muscle toning, rugby (I loved the opportunity to see your colorful bruises and swollen nose) or physics. We all know how glad Mr. Cain is to have someone who looks vaguely awake in class (not to mention enthusiastic). I'm just thankful I was your lab partner and could benefit from your enthusiasm. None of us really know what Tara-Lea wants to do in the future, a page, a vet, a general for our next Commando unit, or a B.H. headmistress (since you really love it here). However, we do know that whatever it may be, she will tackle it with the same willpower and strength that she has shown at B.H. Thank you for a great year and a beautiful friendship. You've always been there when I've needed a friend to lean on. I'll never forget you!! I wish you the best of luck with your wishes and your future! Love, Navdeep.

GWYNNE JOHANNESSON 1994-1995

The instant that Gwynne came to Balmoral, it became apparent that she was the ideal "BH girl". -She was always the first one to join in or help out (especially if you needed a ride somewhere!). She was a loyal member of the senior choir and could always be found photocopying sheet music in the xerox room! She amazed us all with her ability to speak perfect German even though she's American and lives in Canada. And who can forget History class with Gwynne and her numerous stories of saving animals and living in East Germany?! We'll miss you a lot Gwynne and we wish you the best of luck next year as you head back to the States, P.S. Thanks for all the pictures!! Luv, Cheryl.

SHAUNA LABMAN 1989-1995

Shauna entered the halls of BH in grade seven as an innocent private school girl. Shauna quickly became involved in Choir, Student Council, Debating, and last but not least, the BH video. Throughout the past five years, Shauna has become a successful but picky young woman. This all became clear when she passed on Montreal and headed for the catwalk. As "Unplugged"approached, it was time to bring out the punching bag and bid farewell to her long loved tummy. Shauna always took advantage of every trip BH had to offer, most of the time in hunt for that perfect man that we know does not exist. From Ski Trip in grade 8 with Shea, to Mexico in grade 12 with 1, 2, 3, Shauna will forever be playing the field. One special New Year's Eve, we thought a certain Matt almost broke the pattern but he too did not pass the test. Shauna has grown up a lot since then. Now she spends her time writing off cars, having wild pool parties and spending nights in a Hot Tub. Well, Shauna, we love you to death and we wish you all the luck in the world. We have no doubt that you will be a success. Keep in touch! With love, Missy and Megan

REBECCA LECHMAN 1988-1995

Rebecca became a BH girl at the beginning of Grade 6. We first met in grade 7 in Mme. Baranowski's famous Histoire class. Before we knew it, we were making life long memories, that we both will never forget. Brynn's FFest Parties, talking outside Brandi's Bedroom door listening to a very special S&G song, weekends at the lake and double dating with POS, Bec, ? and me (just to name a few) basically sum up our friendship. Rebecca has taken everything she has learned so far in life and poured back into BH as a Head Girl. I know that in grade 7 we promised each other we would make it to the end together. In September, I never thought that would happen, but here I am nine months later, and I'm glad I can say I was wrong. Bec, I owe so much to you. In fact, if it weren't for you I would have missed out on something that means the world to me. I know that you will forever continue to succeed in life and I wish you all the luck in the world. When we leave this school, we will go our separate ways, but when I hear that S&G song, or look at our five years of Garden Party pictures, I will think of six wonderful years of a friendship that will hopefully last a lifetime. I love you with all my heart. A friend for life, Michelle

SIMONE LEE 1994-1995

Simone Lee... My fellow Saskatchewanian. She'll always be remembered for her innocent smile. Me, well, I always remember her for my first viewing of a dance skating test (by the way, she passed, all right Simone)! Coming from Yorkton, Winnipeg was in high competition. How could Winnipeg compete with a city of 15 000 people with 2 high schools? No matter what Simone always found something to do... whether it was going to U of M socials, or going out for coffee (where most of the time I forced her to come). She was always filled with excitement, it's a Yorkton thing...actually a Saskatchewan thing. Everyone would most likely expect Simone to say: "stay fit and have fun", as we saw her with a smile on her face all through aerobics. What's wrong with her? It's pain, not fun. Well at least we're sure Simone will always be smiling. Never forget we're "scholars", (Mr.Aston)! W.A.M.!! Love you Simon Christina P.

DANIELLE LEMOAL 1993-1995

Danielle is a crazy girl who can make the unexpected, expected. She showed us a lot of great times throughout the past two years, and helped us to create some life long memories. This year really flew by fast. Looking ahead to the future made us face a lot of difficult decisions. At one point, we were going to tour the world and go on exciting adventures. When our minds kicked in, we realized that what we were going to have to face was reality. Whatever decision you make Dee, we hope all the best comes to you. (You deserve it!). No matter where you go, or what you do, we will always have the three (DMC) stars in the sky to remember the two adventurous years at B.H. May it be from a window in Winnipeg, the dance floor at Harbour Lights, or the top of the Eiffel Tower, whenever you feel lonely or just want to reminisce, you can always look up at the sky on a clear, dark night and see the three musketeers, shining bright waiting for an episode to come on. Don't worry Dee, we seem to have a magnetic force that will join us again for "Part II", the adventures of DMC in University. Love, Melanie and Claire.

KAREN LI 1994-1995

Coming from Hong Kong, Karen combines the characters of both Eastern and Western people. She is quiet in front of strangers, but naughty among her friends. She likes boys, but loyal only to one, she falls in love. Although she regards Balmoral Hall as a start to her new independent life, she spends most of her time staying in the rez practicing her skills of cooking noodles. The reason why I like to be with her is first, it's fun teasing her. Her favorite lines are "What the hell?" and "Touch wood"! The other reason is she's kind and generous to her friends. Karen spends considerable amount of money on international phone calls and she always shares her happiness with her friends. We sincerely congratulate her for being accepted to York University and offered a scholarship. Jean C.

CATRIONA MACFARLANE 1994-1995

Catriona came to BH in grade 12 from Brandon - a happy, happy place. Her passion for journalism was immediately apparent as she joined the ranks of "Mad about Plaid". One of her most famous articles, an account of the MTC production of "Hamlet", failed to include the details of how she had to be escorted from the building after throwing herself at Keanu Reeves during his performance (how many times have you watched "Speed" now?). Catriona refuses to leave any Moxies restaurant until she is given a few helium balloons. She states that it has something to do with wanting to be a Smurf! Catriona loved performing in "Beatles to Broadway" as she got to show off her gorgeous sequin suspenders and bow tie. She supplied the whole chorus with her own unique collection of sparkling accessories. Catriona will be successful in whatever she decides to do, whether it be psychology, law or journalism. She is sure to make an impact on whichever university she chooses, whether it be Calgary, Dalhousie, or Simon Fraser, and in more ways than one! If all else fails, Catriona can always start up a company making edible finger paint! From your psychic sister, Tina, who will miss you dearly.

YUKO OMURA 1994-1995

Yuko came to Balmoral Hall in grade 12 straight from Japan. In the past year, Yuko has become a valuable member of the BH family and has also managed to learn a great deal of English. She actively participated on many BH sports teams, including volleyball and cross-country, gave a moving speech about the Peace Cranes at the Remembrance Day assembly, and at the same time, managed to survive a whole year in Rez! Yuko enjoyed her time at BH so much, that she plans to return in the fall. We wish her the best of luck in the future!

DIANE ORIHEL 1989-1995

Diane is a girl we all know, rarely to class does she go. She once came on time, it blew all our minds, so she just didn't do it any mo!

At first she was cute and shy, we don't know what happened or why. Now she's psychotic and sometimes neurotic, maybe it's 'cuz of her guy.

Diane is a really great friend, on her we can always depend. When you go we'll be blue, but we'll always love you. As for the poem, my friend, it's the end.

Friend Conservation

DEBORAH PALMER 1981-1995 LIFER!

Deborah Palmer is a lifer who has always been there for anyone who needed support, laughter, or just some crazy advice. One thing that we will never understand is why she only got her left ear pierced, but everything that she does is unique. On her many spares, Deb can be found sitting in the locker room (in the corner) hunched over some overdue homework and munching on her everlasting Melba toast, never forgetting to share her contagious squeaky high laugh which can be heard ringing through the atrium even at 7:45 a.m. or at 5:30 p.m. after Latin. Deb will be working towards her Arts degree at University. We wish you all the luck in the world, you're going to be a great success. Love always, your friends llise and Harwant.

CHERYL PEARSON 1983-1995 LIFER!

Cheryl Christine Pearson has been at BH for 12 years, for which she deserves a gold medal for tenacity. She has also managed to keep a semblance of sanity, (only I know what a facade it really is), though it has slipped a little in past months what with frantic cries over the yearbook. But these are not reasons to remember her, Cheryl should be remembered as a truly great friend. In years to come, remember these things: flailing birdies, dry crackers chez Mrs. Magne, juggling in the library, the deer in the park, Jeopardy, Canasta, lunatics, and knives in washrooms, the freezing day we chose cold steps over gym, wacky and scary concoction at G's, artistic temperment and papier mache, the hovel, the seminar room, unidentifiably bad bits of soaps, the tennis court oath, break-ins (don't worry), playing hookey on that penultimate day and being caught for the very first time, and not tripping in church. Who are we, and what are we doing here? And Cheryl, remember this: G.A.B., G.A.L., D.B.A.D., MET.

TINA PENSWICK 1994-1995

A year ago, B.H. was blessed with England's own Tina Penswick and life hasn't been the same for anyone since! At first the new sports rep with the funny accent seemed quiet, but once she was taken to her first Jet's game, the true Tina emerged. Tina is one of the only people I know who knows the names, numbers, eligibility and age of the entire Jet's team. Aside from being a Jet's Junkie, Tina has had many other interests. Namely stalking Keanu Reeves, mall hopping, and playing choir president. Tina has become the backbone of the choir and helped to lead it to its new found status. Tina blew me away completely when she sang "You Got It" to me and I'll love forever for it. Tina has had many adventures since coming to Canada, from Hecla Island, to Toronto right up to all of her weekend romps to Brandon, "Don't ever forget that little bald head." Tina, you have come to mean a lot to me in the past couple of months. I hope you made the right decision and have fun at Preston University. Don't do anything I would do and remember mon chere, we'll always have the Double Decker. Love, Catriona.

CHRISTINA PYLYPCHUK 1994-1995

Christina Pylypchuk or "Tina" came to Balmoral Hall for her last and final year of high school. She lives with the family of "rezzies" but was formely a Saskatchewanian from the city of Saskatoon. You're most likely to find Tina at a Jets game, Cousins (how's cousin Rick?), cho'r playing soccer, dancing and singing, or scoping out guys. Her energetic outlook on life has lead her to solo roles in B.H.'s "Beatles to Broadway" and we'll all remember those famous lines "it ain't necessary so". Above all, we'll remember her hyper and positive attitude towards life. W.A.M. Luv ya babe, Simone.

MARIA REIMER 1983-1995 LIFER!

Mar has been at BH so long that her hair color has changed thousands of times. Over the years, Mar's love for horses, riding, and the Pal has grown. We will all remember Mar's lops ded haircut, her blood red lipstick, and her tights that laced up the leg, and her satanic way Although Mar has settled down over the years, I will always love you and remember our cheestimes together. Love, Moe.

HARWANT SANDHU 1989-1995

Harwant Sandhu can be seen everyday at ten, madly racing down the hall with a sandwich in one hand, and a red box in the other, on her way to open the canteen. Harwant came here in grade 7 as a shy, studious girl from James Nesbitt Community School. She has since then shown us her "wild side". Harwant is always there to cheer me up and make me laugh when I'm down. One thing that wil! always be a mystery to me is how Har manages to open the canteen everyday and work in there if people forget to, attend meetings, and study, all in one lunch hour! Though her life is hectic, she still remains happy and spontaneous. Bewishes next year at U of W. P.S. Don't forget "coffee cures all!" and take your FRIENDS with you. Deb and Tara.

NAVDEEP SANDHU 1989-1995

Navdeep has been at B.H. long enough for everybody to know and love her. In between her commitments to extra A.P. classes, sports coordinator duties, and romance novels, she finds time to be everyone's personal confidente. She has a clear vision (except after a strawberry daiquiri) of her future (with Prince Charming) and has high expectations for herself. Good luck in the army, Tara-Lea.

VERONICA SCHREIBER 1990-1995

Veronica came to B.H. in grade 8 as a cute quiet girl with the sweetest smile you ever saw. Boy has she changed. Ronnie now struts the halls of B.H. with her black diamond studded retro sixties glasses. She can be found in the locker room, leaning against her locker eating her lunch at only 10:00 a.m. She's famous for her psychotic stories and sadistic questions. Her alternative choice of clothing makes her unique. If Ronnie is nowhere to be found, check out the B.H. library where our bookworm library prefect tends to hang out. We wish you lots of luck in life and wish you success in your writing endeavours. Love, Roslyn and Missy.

SUZANNE SMITH 1990-1995

Sue danced her way into B.H. in grade 8! The next year was filled with her Mersh's wild perverted discussions. Since then Sue has brought a special touch of kindness and hilarity to our class, from her Bodo stories to her spontaneous improvs in the locker room. Of course, it always helps if you go the right way down a one-way street! Sue can always bring a smile to our face. This could of course be a result of the fact that she's on a continual sugar high. A daily stop at Helen's is mandatory! Surprisingly, Sue is not an airhead. Aside from being the biggest physics brain in the world, she has the top marks in the grade. Sue has time for everything, from writing fifty page essays to making personalized X-mas gifts for the entire class. The only thing that she can't manage to do is put her uniform on correctly! We love you and care for you deeply. You'll always have a special place in our hearts! Best of luck! Love, Shauna, Navdeep, and Maria.

TARA STUPAK 1992-1995

Tara first joined the BH family in grade 10. Even though she is a very quiet girl, she has definitely left her mark in this school. Her leadership was expressed in grade 12 when she became the Arts Prefect. Her love and enthusiasm for this school was evident in the Fashion Show, Monday morning assemblies, school dances, the Broadway musical, and the canteen. Without the support of Tara, we wouldn't have had one successful assembly. Tara is always there to lend a helping hand. Her determined nature helped many get through double Calculus. Tara is a great person who has made a lot of friends, who will miss her dearly. Please don't forget us. Love always, Harwant.

MEGAN SWEATMAN 1982-1995 LIFER!

Megan has been at B.H. since grade 1. The perfect, sweet, quiet, gentle B.H. girl, right? Not quite. Megan's tough, athletic, and definitely speaks her mind. When Megan ran for Sports Captain, she had no competition. She is the queen of sports and plays everything. You'd think that being so busy with sports that Meg wouldn't have time for a social life. Incredibly, Megan's always had a life. From grade 8 to grade 12, she has had continuous boyfriends, one after another. Megan has grown over the years from a grade 7 girl who danced by doing very cool Michael Jackson turns to a model in the B.H. Fashion Show waering only a scarf. Megan has guts. Very few people would go for a midnight swim in a 60F pool in MAy. It was worth it though to watch those sexy studs show off their muscles in the sauna afterwards, or at least they thought so. Megan's a lake girl and will never be spotted in the city during the summer. Megan's a kind, caring, loving friend to the point of being motherly (Rolling Stones). When she's around, you know everything will be 0.K. Even through the ups and downs Megan can always be counted on and hey, if there's nothing else to do: let's go bowling! Never forget our memories. Love always, Shauna.

MAGGIE TROTT 1989-1995

Maggie joined the BH family in grade 7 and instantly made her mark as "top debater". Despite her busy public speaking career, which lead her to many competitions all over the world, Maggie still found time to relax and do a few crazy things. It was always a shock to everyone when she skipped school, even though she did it all the time! And of course, Maggie will always be remembered for the numerous times that she was snowed in, "Maggie's snowed in" became the famous excuse when she wasn't at school even in summer. In Grade 12 she successfully revived the M.A.P., was the Head of Glen Gairn, and most importantly, managed to survive a whole year of A.P. Chem (with my help of course!). All this hard work and stress somehow caused her to adopt a strange liking to Nav's romance novels which I'll never quite understand! Thank you for being such an amazing friend Maggie! Good luck next year as you head off to the U. of T. I'll miss you, Luv, Cheryl.

MELANIE TURNER 1993-1995

Melanie, also known as Mel, Cheki, Daye, Bevis, and Nannabush has graced B.H. Halls since grade 11, and boy has the Northern girl changed since then -no more back combed bangs, pinned jeans or fluorescent pink lipstick. Her hair has also gotten shorter and lighter through the course of the years, from below her bum to shoulder length. We sure have had a lot of great times during these two years, and made so many memories and "dreams". We'll never forget Cormoront (ice fishing), our little trip to Kenora and Barbados. We know that what ever path you chose, you'll be great. Your vibrant personality and your stale sense of humour will take you far. We'll never forget you and the great life time memories we've shared. All the best of luck to you in the future whether it is in university, a beach in Barbados, or the jungles of Africa. You seem to make the best out of any situation. P.S. Never forget to remember. Love, Danielle and Claire.

CLAIRE VALIDEN 1993-1995

Claire has been at B.H. in grade 3, grade 8, and grade 11 and 12. I guess she just couldn't make up her mind. She lives in Rez and believe me, there is never a quiet moment when she's around!! Whether she's singing, dancing, making everyone laugh, or sitting 2 inches away from the T.V. (she doesn't like her contacts). We've made a lot of real great memories with her these past 2 years, Barbados, Kenora, Cormoront, Thompson (if you want to remember that, or if you can) and partying and having a real good time getting into trouble. Whatever Claire decides to do in life, she'll make all her colleagues laugh, and see the brighter side of life, never mind probably getting fired. When everyone starts playing "Beat the Retard", in the office!!! your friend that will never be forgotten. We wish you all the best of luck in life, and always remember "DMC" is in the house, watch out!!! Love always, Danielle and Melanie. P.S. Is Rubber Cliff calling you??

KATHRYN ZAWORONOK 1992-1995

Many people know Kat to be a spunky, pigtailed blonde, always with an opinion and never without gum. However, when Kat first arrived at B.H., she was quite a different person. Shy, timid, and a redhead, Kat made her first grand appearance in the halls with full makeup, a great hairdo, and a kilt that almost touched the floor. Well the makeup has remained, and the hairdos continue to amaze us, but the kilt has risen a few feet, as has Kat's value in our hearts. At first most people didn't get a chance to know the quiet redheaded Kat. But as time ticked on, Kat began to let more and more of her quirky personality show through. She has made her mark in many aspects of the school. Kat has always been interested in the arts and her work is regularly on display. As well, Kat's dancing and singing talents really shone when she played the stunning role of...well...a road in the school musical. But most importantly, Kat has proven that she is a great friend, always there to listen, cry, or laugh hysterically. You'll always have a family in Winnipeg. We love you from the bottom of our hearts.

ANGEL ZHANG 1994-1995

For starters, we admit there could be some controversy about the first name, but we'll let that pass. Angel is a small package from China-that packs a big wallop. Shy, she is not. Quiet, she is not. A good friend, she is, and in generosity, she is truly angelic. We taught her Canasta with lofty superiority and within a game she proved a true card shark, while shanghaiing our confidence. Now, she tromps us regularly. Math persons look out, Angel is on the scene. A marvelous look, born tobogganer (yes, we find this odd too), movie nut, and junk food junkie, surely Angel has all the skills needed to survive and succeed in the 90's. I have to say to you Angel, E.A.T.!

VALEDICTORIAN SPEECH

Today is the day I have waited all my life for, yet it seems it has taken only seconds to arrive. A more important beginning than the first day of kindergarten, signaling more freedom than a driver's licence, it is graduation. I am both honoured and saddened to stand up here and address my fellow graduates. Honoured because I am addressing the most beautiful people I have ever known, saddened because this time has come so quickly. Our friendships have survived through good times, bad times, those crucial "developing" years, tragedies and celebrations. We have overcome hurdles and sometimes just coasted through on good luck.

Today as we leave Balmoral Hall, we not only leave a place of academic learning, but we leave the place that has brought us all together, a place where memories were made and friendships created. Although we may never again grace those hallowed halls, I'm sure our memory will linger forever. We have been known over the years as "the difficult grade". The grade who needed the "attitude change". We have been stubborn, opinionated and sometimes just downright pushy. We may have had a few rough moments but all it took to bring us together was a good fight between us and the higher powers. And yet today, we must leave this place that has challenged our determination and nurtured our spirit. I look before me and I see those same stubborn girls, now young women, ready to move on to

However we have not made it here on our own. It has taken the hard work and patience of many people to shape and mould us into the young women we are today. To our teachers we thank you. You have always been there when we needed you. Armed with staplers and rubber bands, you have kept both our kilt hems and our socks high and dry. You have enforced attendance to homeroom period to the best of your abilities. You have taught us that hi over ho = di over do and that Beavis and Butthead really ARE great substitutes for Rosencrantz and Guildenstern. You have threatened to fail us if we kept talking at the back of the room and then sat through endless hours of 8:00 am extra help. You have shown us that with a little hard work and determination anything is possible. You have guided us towards becoming indepedent, confident young women ready to take on the world. To you we owe our patience, our determination, and our self-esteem.

To our parents we thank you. You have been there when we have bruised a knee or scraped an elbow. You have always been ready when we needed an empty margarine container with holes in the lid so our bugs could breathe. You have sworn that you're cool, hip, 90's parents and then nearly choked when we brought home a date who was taller than you with an earring and long hair. You have been there, armed with chocolate chip cookies, when our hearts were broken. You have always taught us to set our goals high. You have told us that we can be the best at anything we want to be. To you we owe our sense of trust, our morals, and our character.

To our fellow students we thank you. You have kept us on our toes at every moment. You have helped us to feel old and outdated before we even reached the legal age. You have even considered our feelings once in a while and stepped aside as we passed through the halls pretending to respect us because we're older. To you we owe our sense of humour, and endless great memories.

I would like to speak directly to the graduates and offer these words of advice. As we were growing up we heard ourselves labelled as "The Generation X". We have been told that we are the first generation in history that will have a lower standard of living and less job opportunities than our parents. We have been told that there is no future due to a deteriorating environment, overpopulation, violence, and a society with a very negative attitude. Well fellow graduates, all I can say is, I believe we face a challenge. And I believe that the best way to overcome a challenge is the method we've been using for years. We must be strong, we must be determined, and we must never let our hopes down. In these days of equality and equal opportunity, women are riding high. I challenge all of you to take advantage of the opportunities that lie ahead of you as women in the 90's. We shall be the Generation X and watch out Mom and Dad because we're right behind you. We are bright, we are determined, and we are capable of overcoming any obstacle that lies in our path. Susan Sciefelbein once wrote,

"We are special because we are integral parts of infinity. The stuff of stars has come alive. Inanimate chemicals have turned to living things that swallow, breathe, bud, blossom, think, dream... We are children of the universe."

The graduates of '95 are children of the Universe and I wish for all of you bright, prosperous, and wonderful futures. I know that each and every one of you will be the best you can be.

In closing I would like to leave you all with some of my most vivid memories of this past year and of B.H. I will have, permanently embedded in my memory, the sight of all the class presidents about two feet off the ground, scotch taped to the gym wall. I will always remember the grade nine class, their entry in the Jack O'Lantern contest complete with ketchup, soup from the kitchen, shaved turkey and fruit flies, and who could forget their rather strange though slightly creative impromptu Barbie airband. I will remember the relief I felt each and every day, that my locker was in the Senior School locker room and not in the green smog and treacherous odours locker room. Of course, we could forget the wonderful D.J. from the Hallowe'en Dance who's baby blue tuxedo was, by the way, not a costume. However, the most vivid memory I have is not of a singular event. After hours and hours of planning there is nothing more rewarding than seeing people having fun and enjoying the activity you have worked so hard to make a success. This year I think we have seen the most support ever from the student body. The sight of everyone having a good time, laughing with their friends is the most special memory to me. So as promised at the end of '94 I would like to conduct a little test. Look to your left. Have you spent time with this person? Have you gotten to know them a little better this year? And look to your right. Is the person a friend? Is it someone you have shared good times with this year? I hope that we have made it possible for you to say yes.

Thank you all for being so wonderful. I will miss you all dearly and I love you from the bottom of my heart.

"TEMPUS FUGIT. It is June 15, 1995. Time is passing. The clock is ticking as we sit here The world is turning. But you will not be overtaken by time if you instead take time in your own hands. Taking your time -- time to listen, to watch, to breathe, to change, to grow. Time in all its fullness -- is yours."

- Carol Shields, Guest Speaker at Convocation
